Dear Grower:

Thank you for your interest in our buckwheat program for the 2020 growing season. For more details about our competitive pricing, contracts and seed acquisition process please call us at (315) 536-3311.

All growers play a vital role in the food supply chain and we thank you for helping us continue to mill healthy, high quality buckwheat products that are enjoyed by consumers across the country. Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to working with you!

Wishing you success,

The Birkett Mills Management Team
